Amendments to the Charter of The Library
Company of Philadelphia.

I. The Library Company of Philadelphia shall hereafter be held and taken to possess all such powers and capacities as may be necessary to enable them to act as Trustees under the Will of the late Dr. James Rush according to the provisions of an Act of the General Assembly of this Commonwealth approved on the Twenty-third day of February One thousand eight hundred and seventy (1870), entitled "An Act relative to The Ridgway Branch of the Philadelphia Library".

II. So long as the Library Company shall act as such Trustees they shall do so, under the following limitations and conditions:

First: Not more than one-fourth of the directors of the library shall belong to any one of the three learned professions, of law, theology, or medicine. But this shall not operate so as to exclude any of the present members from re-election.

Second: The number of shares in the library shall be limited to those actually issued at the time of the death of the said Dr. James Rush.

But the managers, by their by laws, shall have the authority to allow any respectable persons depositing an amount and paying an annual sum to be fixed by the Board of Managers, to have the full and free use of the library, as completely as if they were shareholders.

Third: The library shall not connect themselves with any other body, corporate or politic.

To the Honorable the Court of Common Pleas for the City and County of Philadelphia

The Memorial of The Library Company of Philadelphia respectfully represents to your Honorable Court that by an Act of Assembly entitled "An Act Relative to the Ridgway Branch of the Philadelphia Library" approved the twenty third day of February A.D. 1840. it was enacted, "That the Library Company " of Philadelphia be, and they are hereby " authorized to act as Trustees for the " Ridgway branch of the Philadelphia
" Library and the trusts pertaining " thereto, under the last Will and " Codicils of James Rush, late of the " City of Philadelphia, Doctor of medicine
" upon the conditions and provisions
" therein contained, without limitation
" as to the yearly value or income of " the said trust estate, but in such " manner that the real and personal " property of the Company, including such " books, pictures, statues and other works " of literature and art as now are or " shall hereafter be held by them in their own right or on any other or different trusts, shall be in no wise affected thereby, but shall remain and be under their entire and exclusive control and disposition; and the said company are hereby empowered, after acceptance of this act by the members of the said company, to apply from

their own right, or on any other or different trusts, shall be in no wise affected
thereby, but shall remain and be
company are hereby empowered, after
of the said company, to apply from time to time to the Court of Common Pleas for the City and County of Philadelphia for such further amendments to the Charter of the company as may be necessary to carry into effect the conditions and provisions of the said Will and Codicils in accordance with the directions of this act.

That at a meeting of the members of the said company duly convened on the twenty fifth day of May, A.D. 1870. it was resolved that the Library Company of Philadelphia do accept the provisions of the Act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth approved the twenty third day of February 1870.
entitled "an act relative to the Ridg-
